1. [] Comment. The troop trains from and to the Wustrow AAA Range are commented on as follows:

[] The train possibly carried an element of the unidentified AAA regiment of the LXXIX Mtz Rifle Corps from Burg which, on 10 March 1954, moved to Wustrow on the troop train [] and returned after termination of combat firing practices. After unloading at Tangerhuetten, the unit probably was to participate in field exercises of the 207th Mtz Rifle Div.

4. [] Comment. The troop trains carried components of the 6th Gds Mech Div from Eberswalde, Bad Freienwalde, and Kaulsdorf back to their home station after termination of field exercises in the area of Mirow-Neuruppin and farther to the south. [] Except for their track-laying elements, the units of the division from Bernau probably returned by road from the maneuver.
